KERNS HOUSE (SINGERLY'S ADVENTURE) - Before 1850 - East side of Foreston Road, just south of Beckleysville. Two-story brick house in vernacular style, five bays wide in main block; gable roof; inside end-chimneys; attic end-windows. Probably built by Zenker family prior to 1850. House has apparently been stripped of a full-width porch. Small one-story wing or segment. House was rebuilt after a fire. Owners: Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kerns, Jr.
